Donate for a weeklong stay in the beautiful French village of Collioure.

Dear Claudia

Imagine waking up to the sun-drenched charm of Collioure, a captivating French village recently crowned "Most Beautiful Town in France" (2024). Nestled on the Mediterranean coast, with the Pyrenees as its backdrop, this vibrant town is your gateway to a week of unforgettable experience.

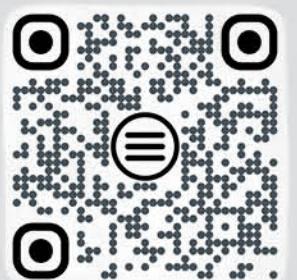

Here's your chance to reserve a magical stay in Collioure – and all for a good cause!

For a donation to KICS (see below), you can book a weeklong stay in a stunning apartment. The flight is not included.

Just a minute's stroll from a child-friendly beach, this two-bedroom haven boasts breathtaking hillside views, a spacious balcony, and all the comforts you need for a perfect French getaway.

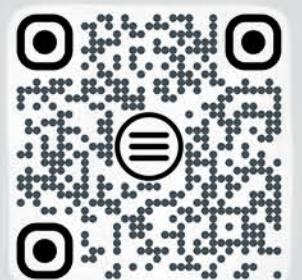

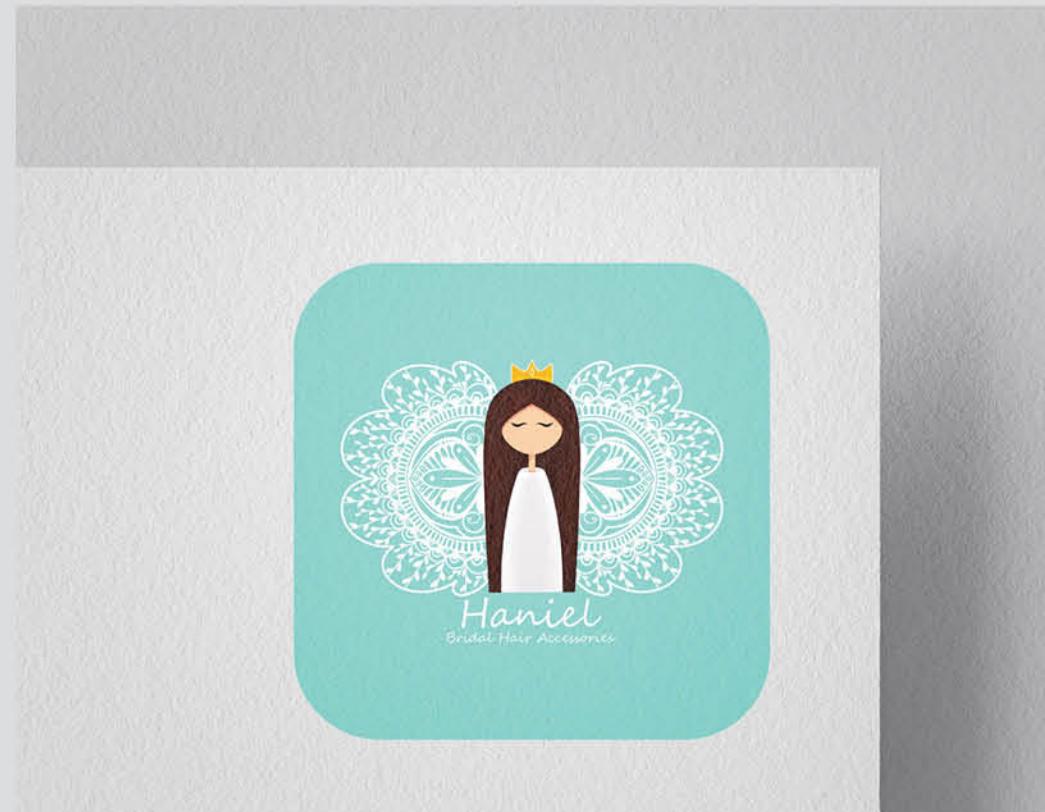

The owners are offering one KICS newsletter reader one week in high season in exchange for a donation of £500 to the charity, or £400 during the rest of the year. Please email info@kanaama.org if you are interested. In doing so, you give your permission to share your details with the owner. The rental agreement will be between you and the owner.

'Hope had a Dream' Book's Illustration

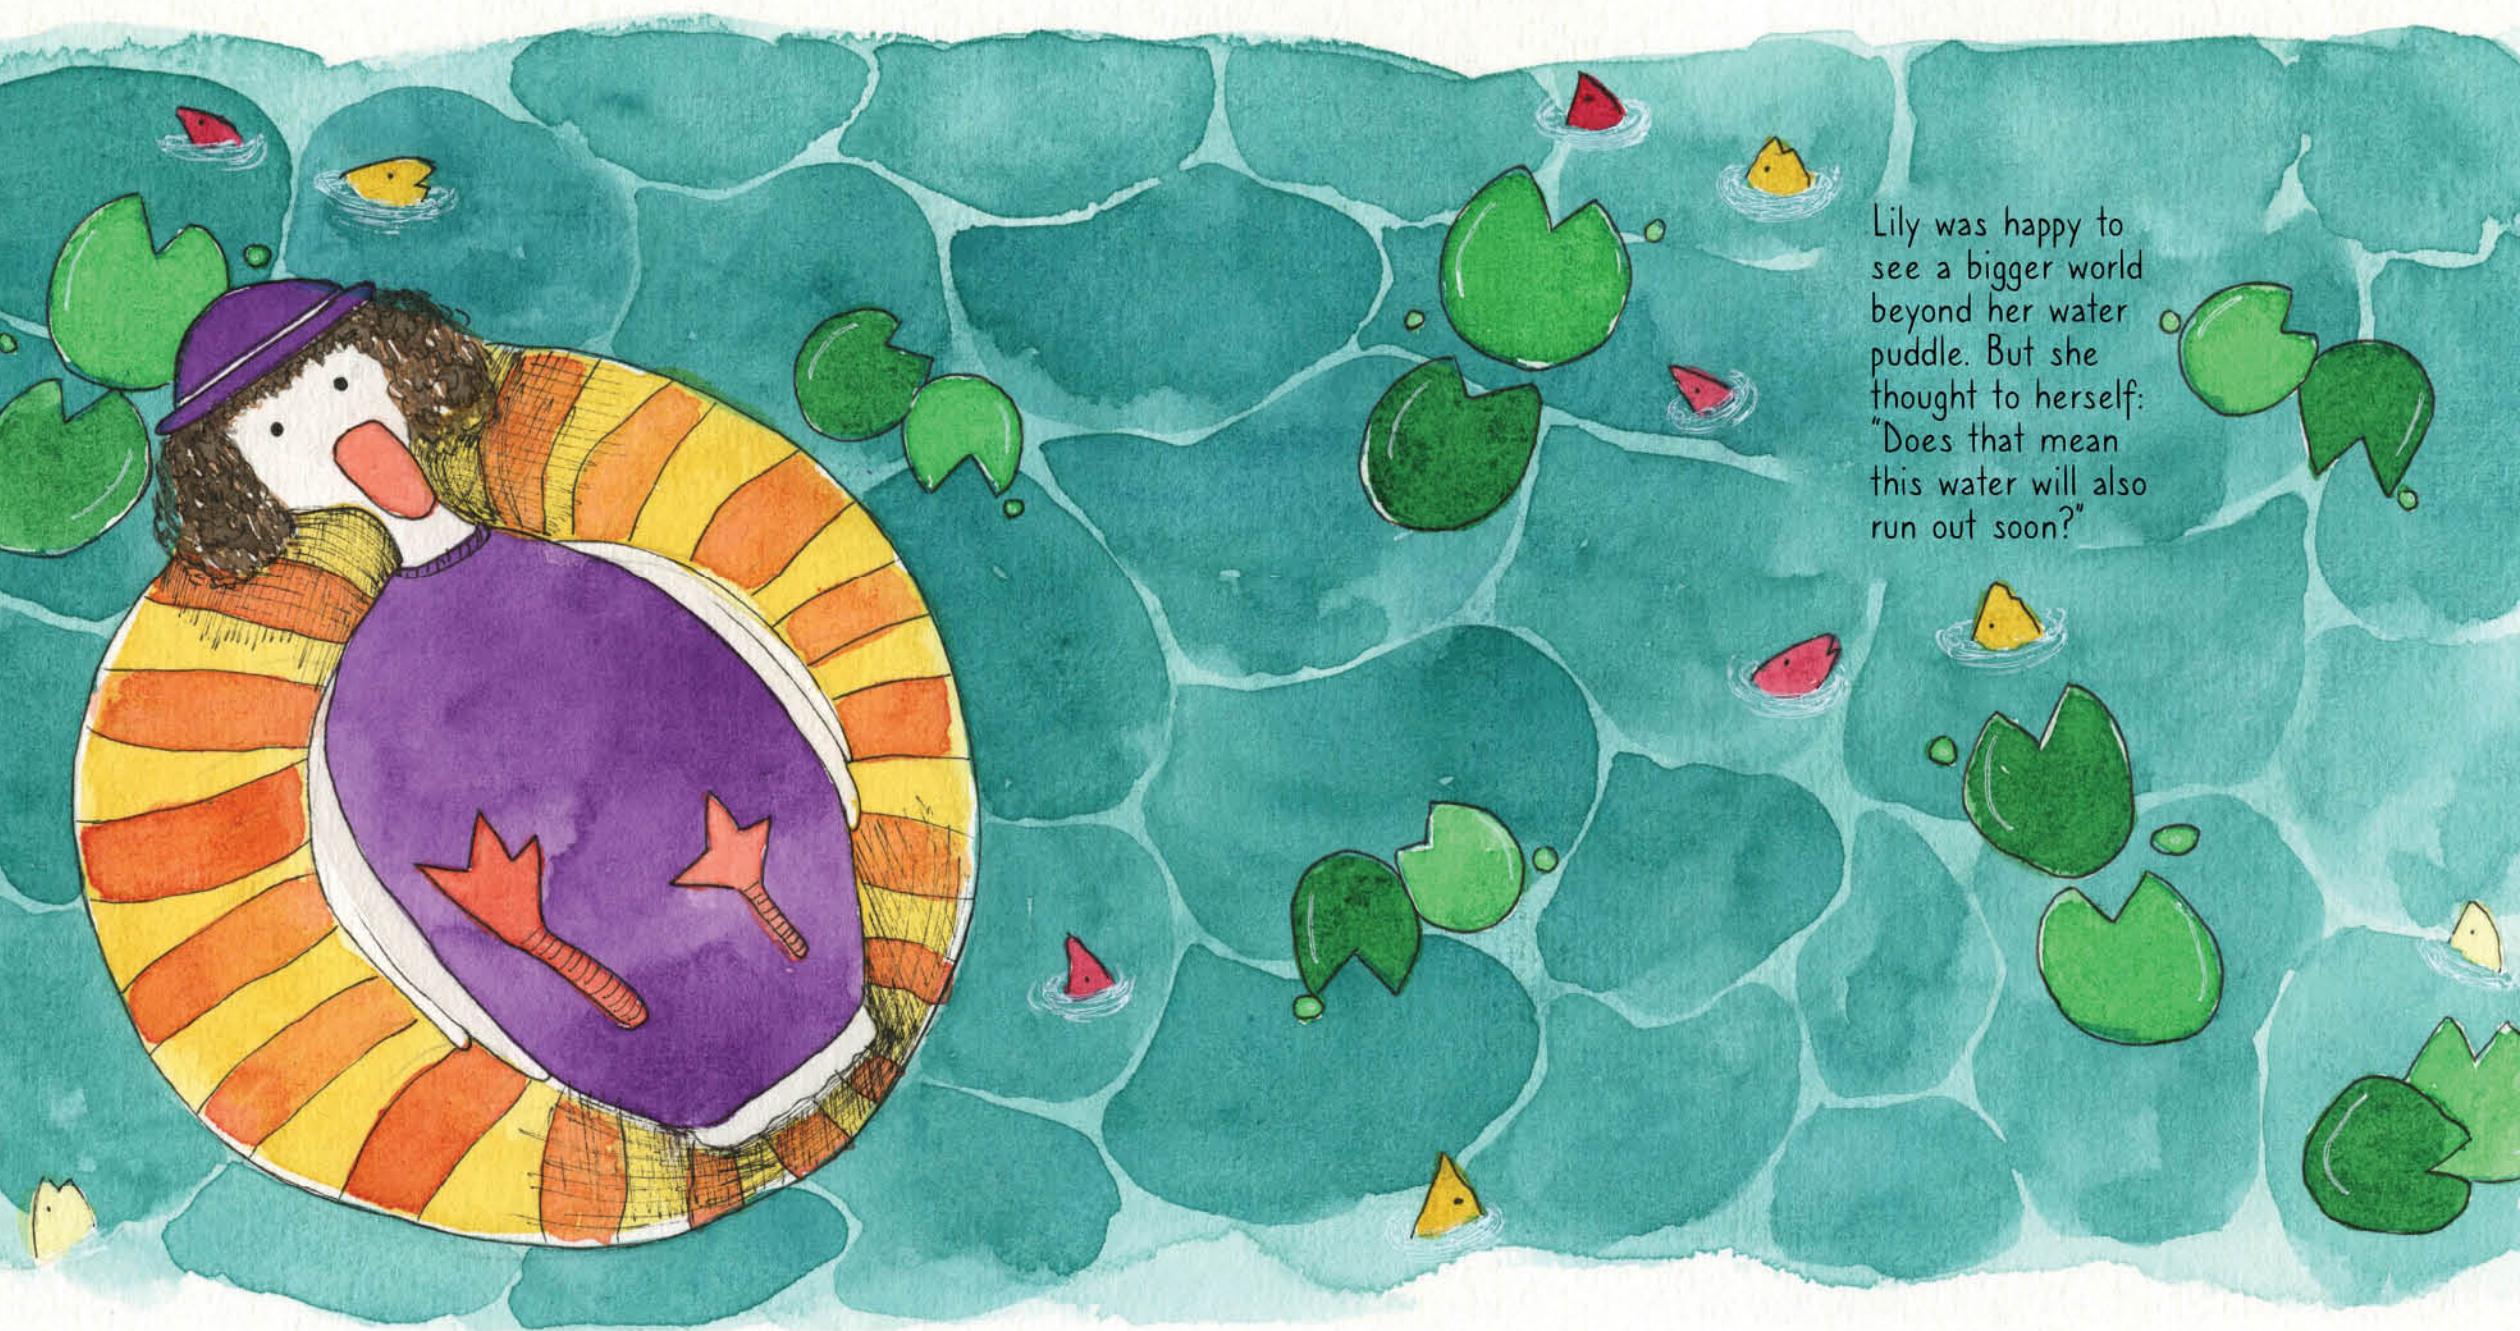

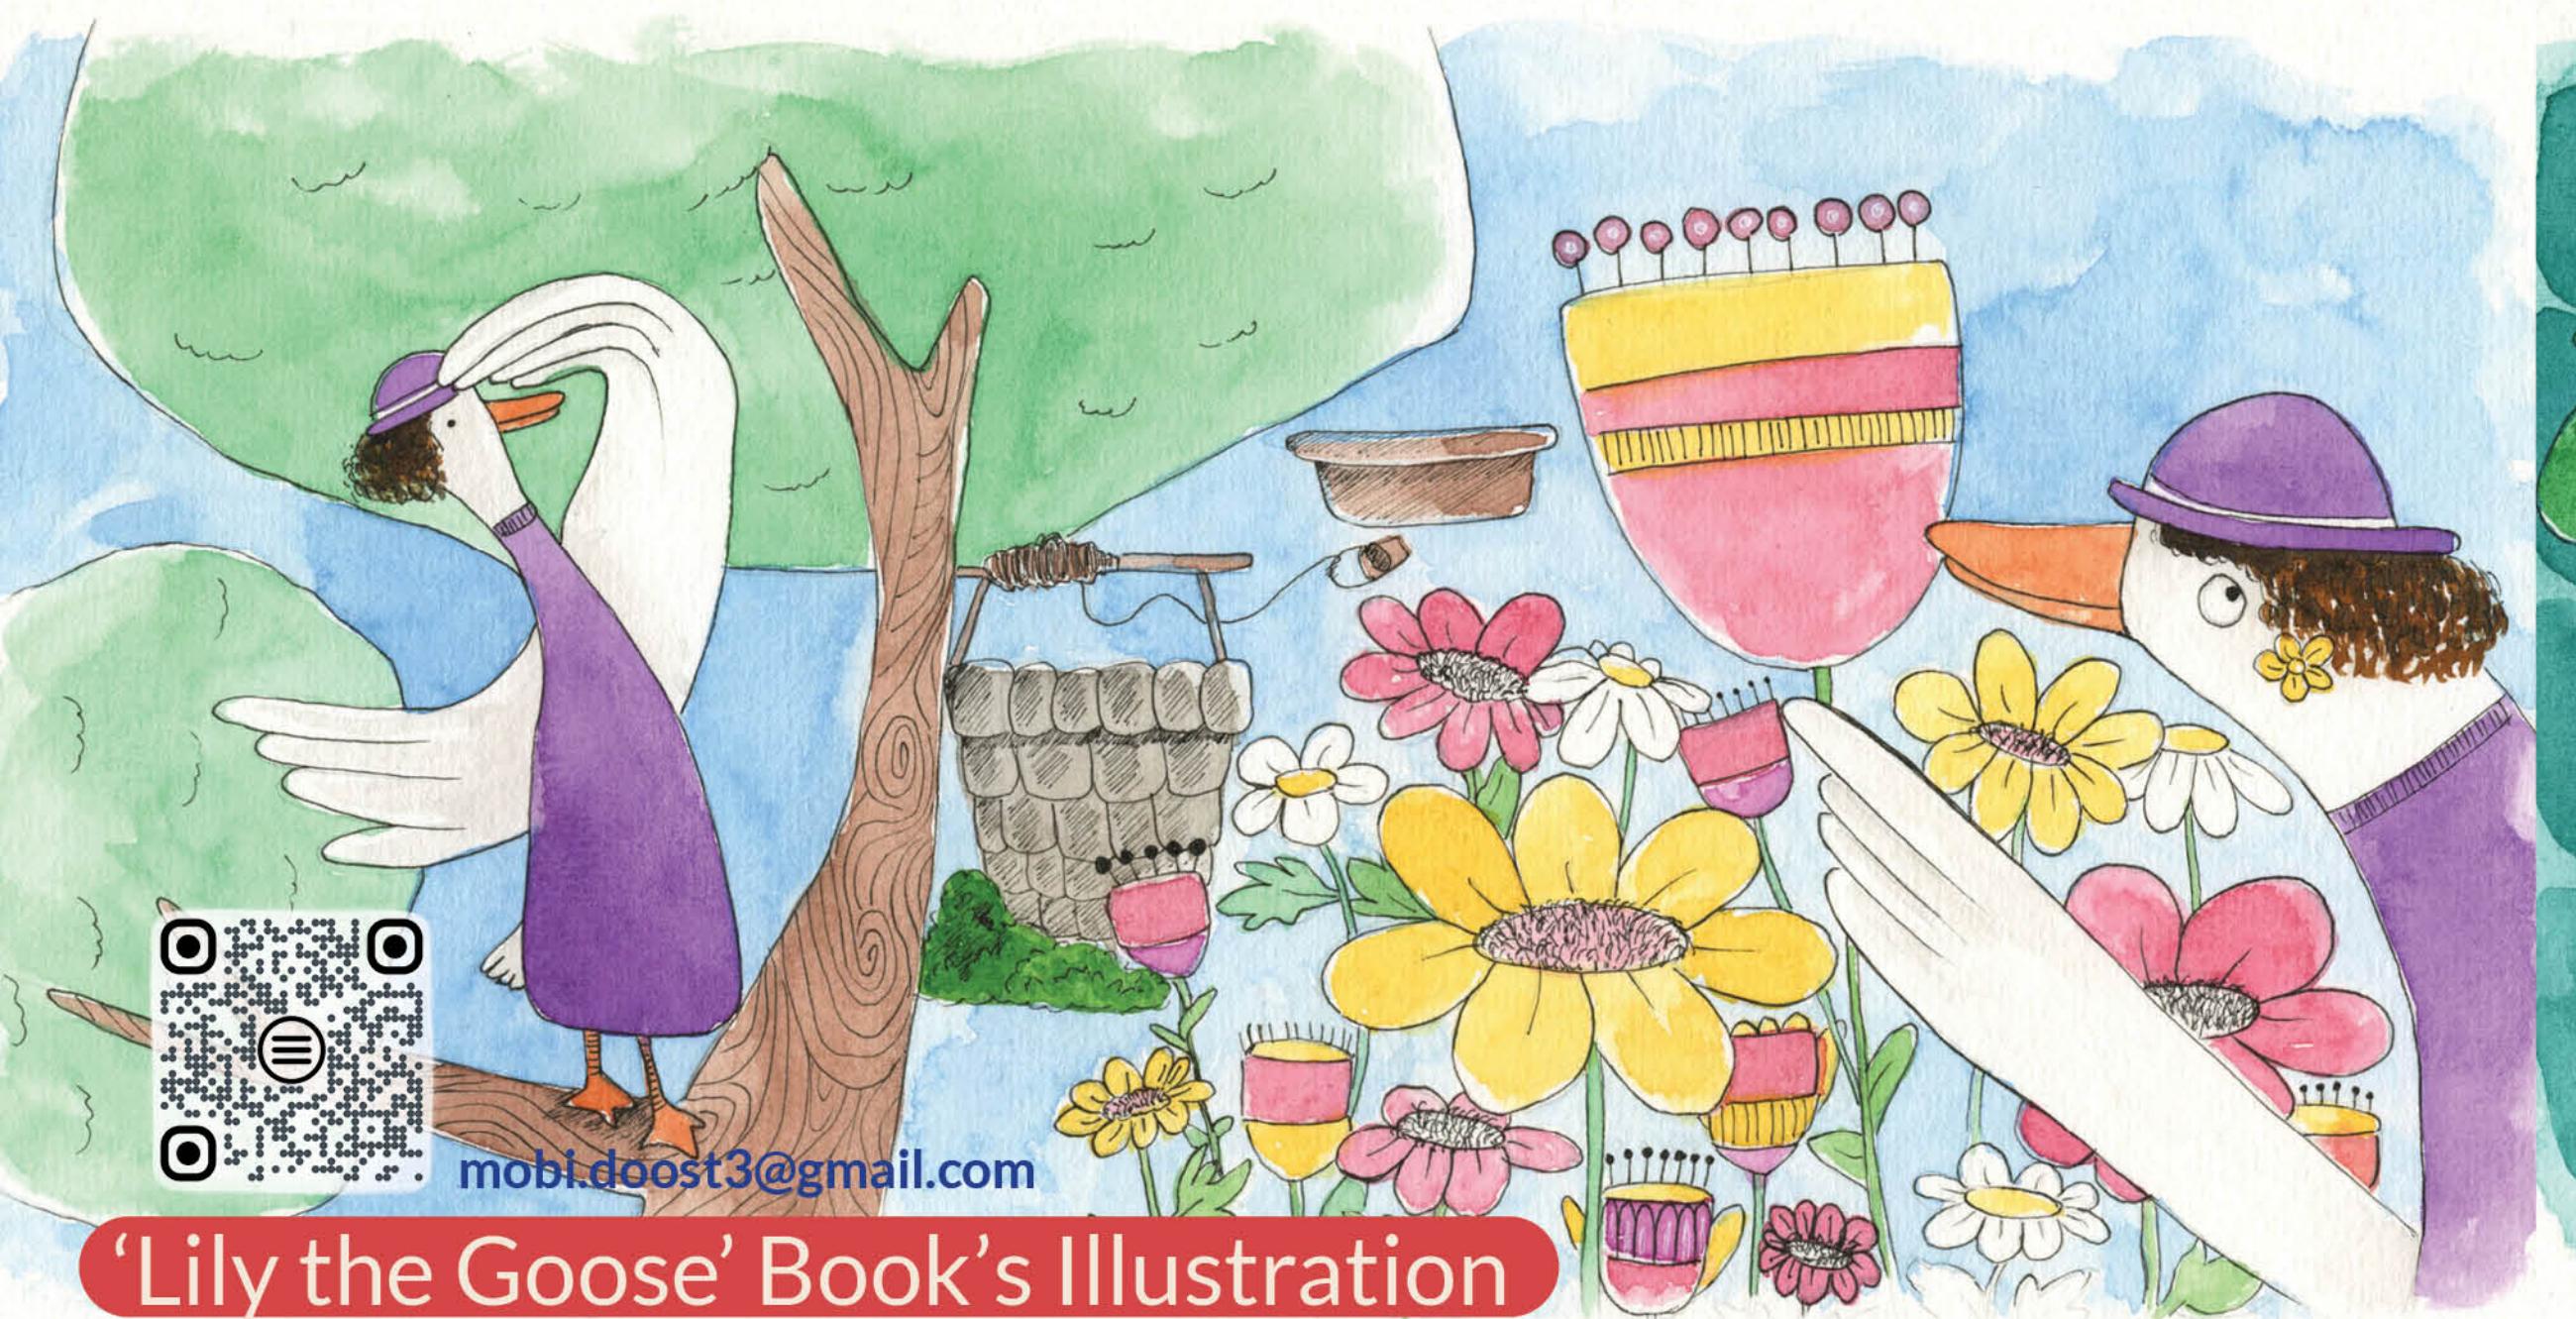

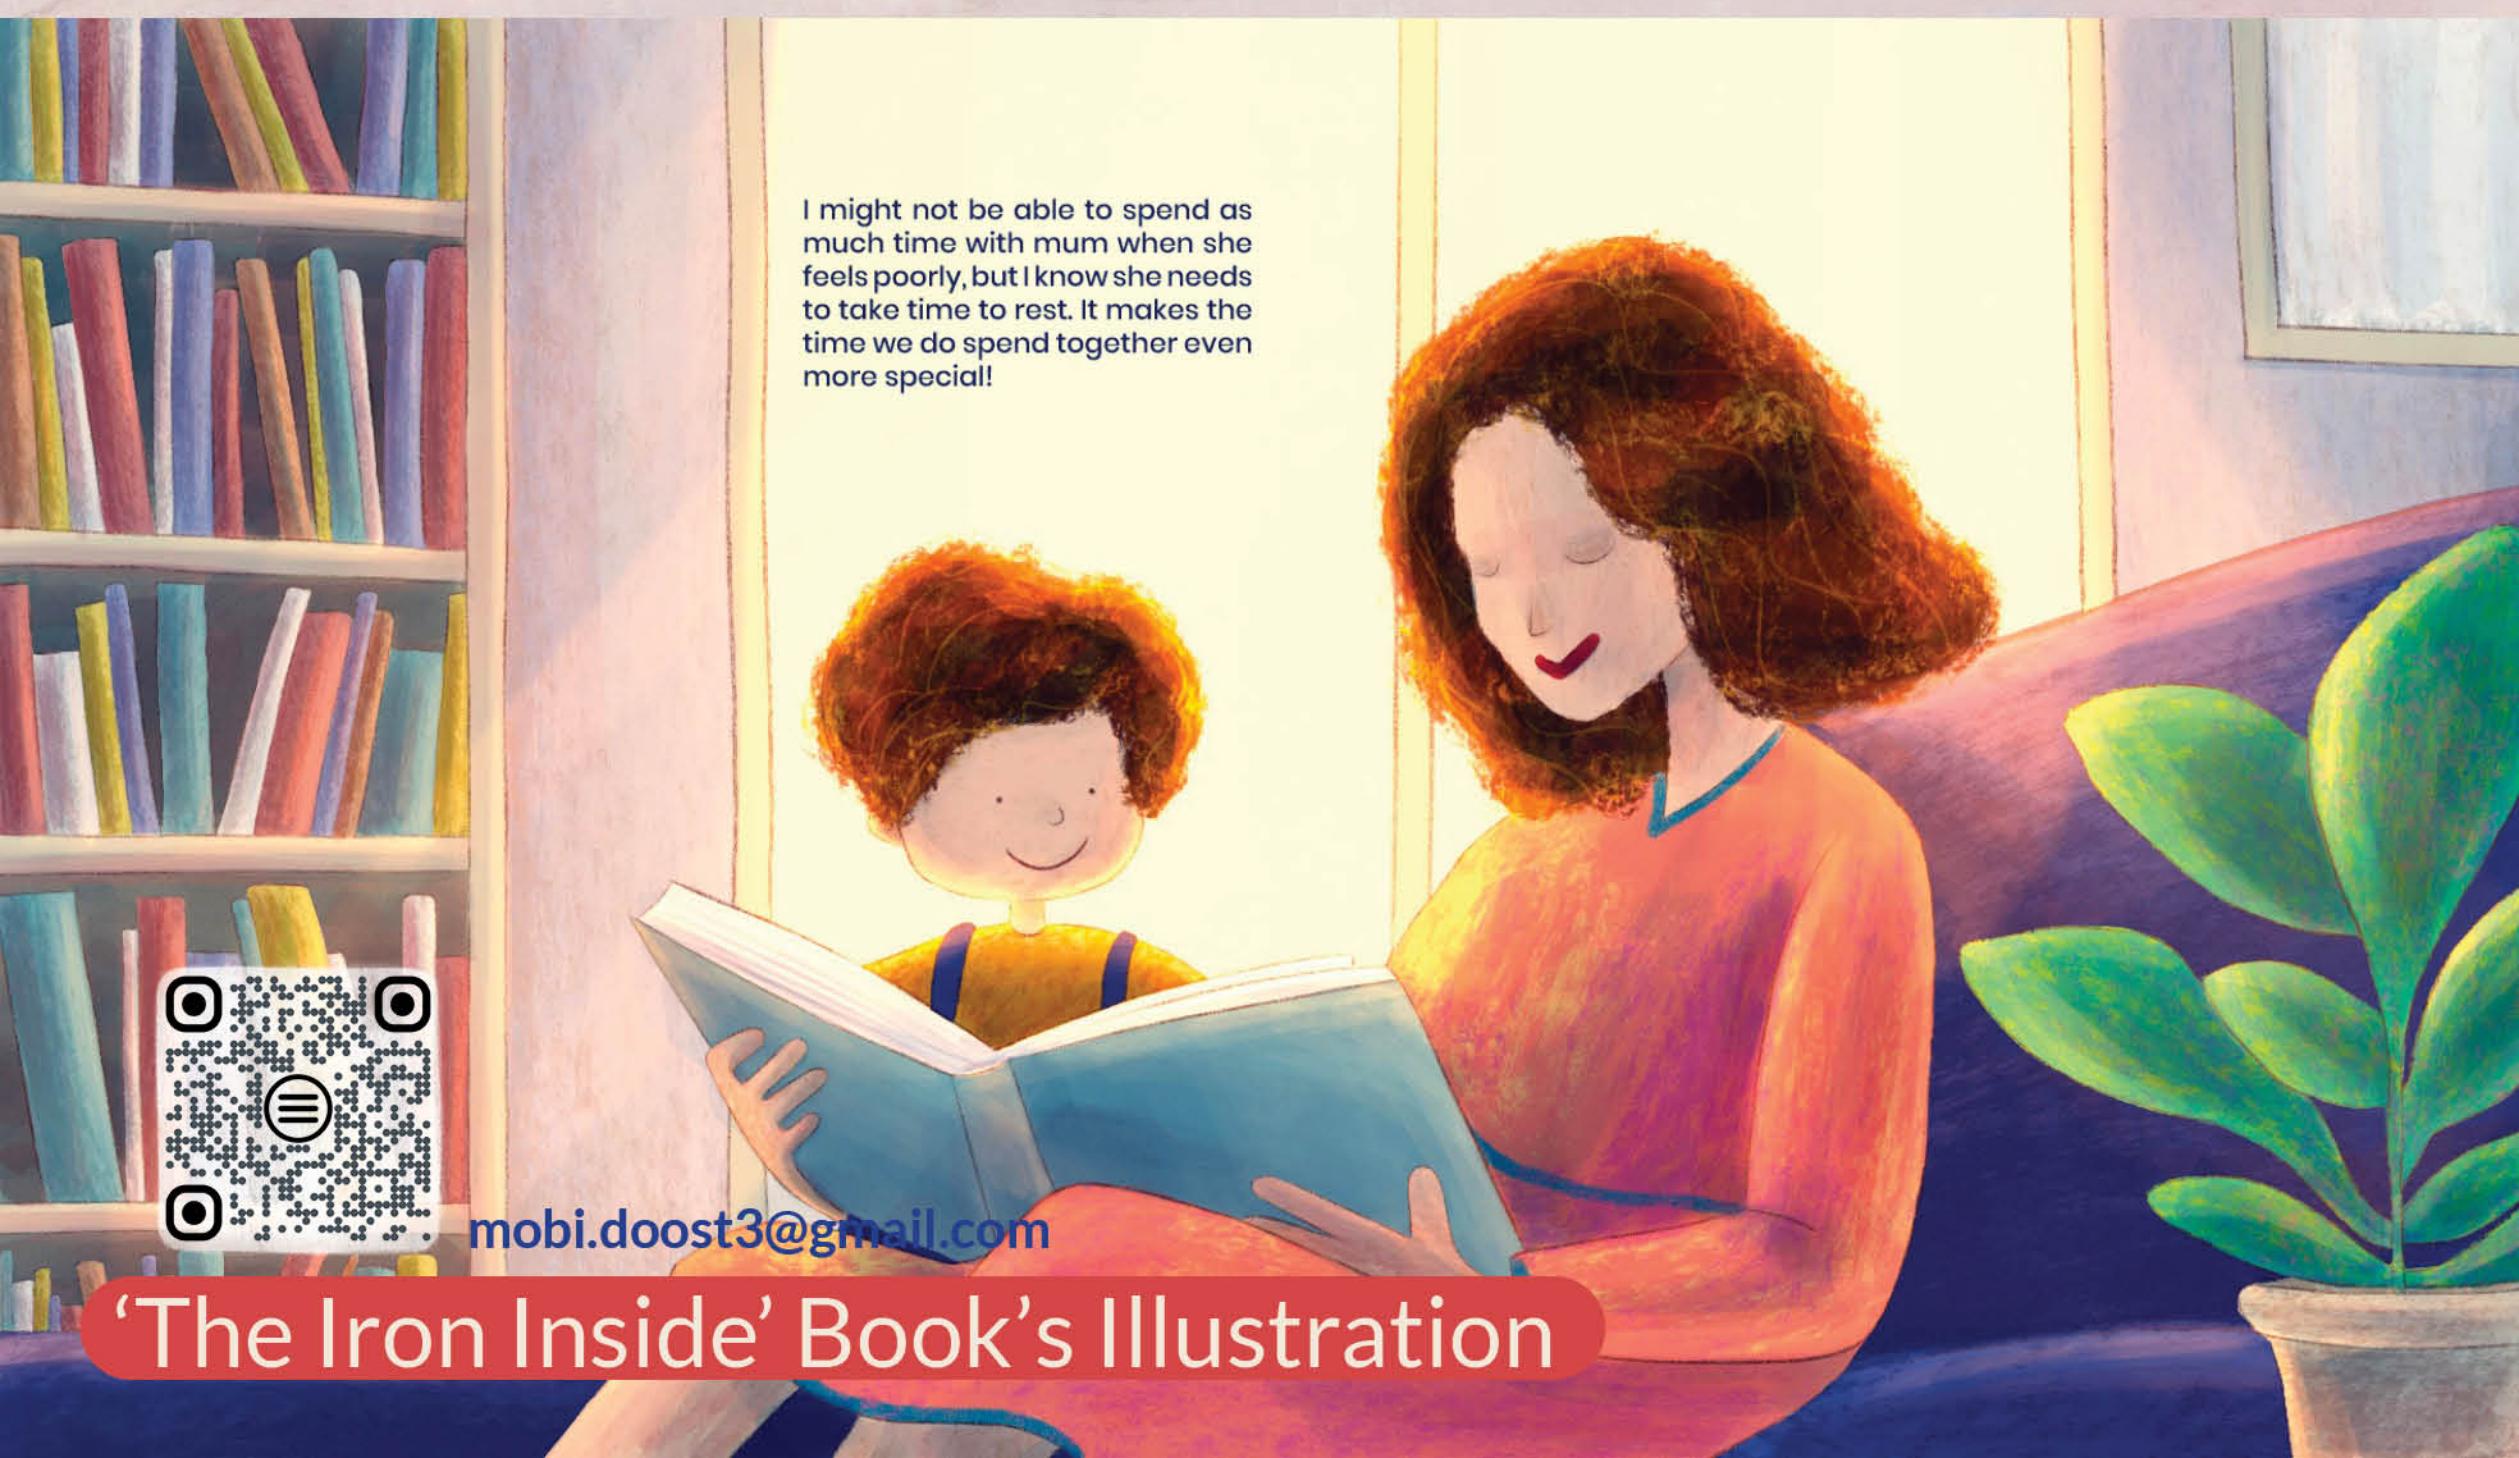

When he returned to Siberia
this time, he carried happiness and hope within his heart.

Lily, the Kindhearted Goose, sat alone. Lily didn't have any friends. Can you guess why? Her mom and dad had told her: "Don't stray too far from us." But when the hunters took Lily's mom and dad away, she became all alone, and her days were spent playing in the water.

She spun around, looking for water around herself.
